The Final Step

When the URL is given, the model analyses and gives the output whether it is a phishing or legitimate website.

Here, we will try to specify the same link given above by altering the spelling of the domain name. It validates with the domain name and if not found, It warns about the risk of phishing.

Hurray!!! You have made it.

Congratulations on successfully completing the "Web Phishing Detection using Machine Learning"